Answers

- a) Transfer to spades and rebid three diamonds (forcing).
- b) Bid two clubs in search of a 4-4 heart fit.
You will later make a slam try.
- c) Bid 3NT since you own a perfectly balanced hand.
- d) Begin with Stayman and, if partner denies a four-card major, reveal that you hold five spades as per your agreements.
- e) Respond four diamonds as Texas Transfer (to four hearts).
- f) Bid 4NT as a quantitative raise inviting slam if partner holds a maximum.
- g) Pass since you own insufficient values to continue.
- h) Transfer to hearts and rebid three diamonds (forcing) to reveal an unbalanced hand,
- i) Transfer to hearts and rebid 3NT offering a choice of games.
Possession of two tens and a five-card suit warrants this action.
- j) Transfer to hearts and rebid 4NT inviting slam in hearts or NT.
- k) Rebid four diamonds as a splinter (singleton) in search of a heart slam.
- l) Rebid two spades disclosing 5-5 in the majors but only invitational values.
- m) Employ Stayman and advance to 3NT if partner does not rebid spades.
- n) Transfer to hearts and rebid three spades to show 5-5 in the majors but no slam aspirations.
- o) Pass not enough for game.
- p) Transfer (three diamonds) and quit.
- q) Raise to 3NT not enough for slam.
Do not use Stayman with a pancake pattern.
- r) Start with Stayman and reveal a five-card spade suit as per your agreements.
- s) Advance to 3NT because all finesses will work with LHO having opened the bidding.
- t) Transfer to spades and quit.
- u) Bid two spades as a relay to three clubs which you will correct to three diamonds ending the auction.
- v) Raise to 3NT relying upon the club suit to be worth at least six tricks.
- w) Bid two clubs as Stayman to check for a 4-4 spade fit.
- x) Bid four clubs as Gerber and settle into a diamond slam.
